DEPRESSION HITS CHURCH FINANCES

First Congregational, Moline, Reports
Deficiency of $870 in Year's Collections.

TO ERECT NEW EDIFICE SOON

Officers Are Elected at Annual Meeting—Trinity Evangelical Dedication Sunday.

The annual banquet and business meeting of the First Congregational church of Moline was held last evening, some 200 people participating.

That there has been something of a slump in church finances during 1915 was a fact made known by report of the trustees, the depression being given as a cause. Thirty-six members moved out of the parish during the year, and amounts of some pledges had to be reduced. Deficiency in collections as compared with 1913 was $870. At the same time the church remains in fairly prosperous condition. Increases to the amount of about $200 were pledged. Doubtless other increases will be obtained later.

The trustees have been assured that the balance remaining due from the purchasers of the present church site will be paid May 1, leaving the church free to proceed with erection of a new church.

The trustees in their capacity of building committee reported all that has been done to date, but further action as to the new church was deferred to another meeting.

Many letters had been received from absent members, voicing their devotion to the old church. Among these letters was one from Robinson Nye, now in California, and one from Mrs. Alfred Williams.

Election of officers resulted:
Trustees—George W. Ross, J. L. Simmon.

There was a tie for the third place between H. W. Cooper and Gus Lindvall.

Deacons for three years—Rufus Walker, Sr., F. A. Berglund, G. Almon Ford.

Deacon for one year, to fill vacancy—C. R. Rosborough.

Deaconesses for two years—Mrs. S. H. Garst, Mrs. L. M. Annan.

Treasurer—Carl Lundberg.
Clerk—Will Howlett.

Sunday school superintendent—Wilson P. Hunt.

Assistants—R. S. Blakemore, Miss Grace Dale.

Superintendent primary department—Mrs. W. H. Guthrie.

Assistant—Mrs. L. A. Mahoney.

Superintendent cradle roll—Miss Leah Trefz.

Pianist for Sunday school—Helen Sellmer.

Sunday school secretary-treasurer—H. S. Selmer.

Addresses full of optimism for the future were delivered by the pastor, P. C. Ladd, by W. P. Hunt in behalf of the Sunday school, by Cyril Fay of the Young People's society, and by George W. Ross from the standpoint of the trustees and building committee.

A brief adjourned meeting will be held the coming Sunday forenoon.

To Dedicate Sunday.

Dedication of the new church of the Trinity Evangelical Lutheran congregation of Moline will take place Sunday afternoon. The church is located at Fourteenth avenue and Fourteenth street. The program which will begin at 2:30, follows:

A cordial invitation to be present is extended to all.

Obituary

Mrs. Armenda Reed.
Mrs. Armenda Reed, 73 years of age and for many years a resident of this city, died at 9:30 this morning at the county infirmary, following an illness of 19 days with pneumonia. She had been making her home at the county farm since 1913. Besides one son, Dan Reed, 1219 Fourth avenue, she leaves a son in Milan. The remains were taken to Dixon & Moeller's undertaking parlors this afternoon.

Swan Larson Funeral.
Funeral services for Swan Larson were conducted yesterday in the home, 415 1/2 Fourteenth street, Moline, at 2:30, Rev. A. F. Bergstrom of the Swedish Lutheran church speaking in both English and Swedish. The Olive chorus sang several selections, while members of both the Svithod and Eagles' order, of which deceased had been a member, participated in the ceremonies. Andrew Olson of the former order delivered a eulogy to the departed, in which his generous disposition was emphasized.

A large number attended services at the home and escorted the remains to the grave, while the floral tributes were numerous. Three members of the Svithod and three Eagles were active pallbearers and six members of the Liquor Dealers' association were honorary pallbearers. Those serving actively were Fred Anderson, O. E. Falk, Knute Stromberg, Russell Renstrom, J. J. Pierce and A. P. Pears. B. C. Johnson, Oscar Bufe,

Peter DeClerk, Axel Lundeen, Jack Stewart and S. R. DeBauer were the honorary bearers. Remains were placed in the Riverside vault, where they will be kept till the new mausoleum is completed.

George Warren Eaton.

Geneseo, Jan. 14.—George Warren Eaton died in his home on South Oakwood avenue Thursday morning at 5, after an illness of ten weeks. Mr. Eaton was born in Rochester, Vt., Dec. 1, 1840. On Aug. 27, 1861, he enlisted in Company E, Fourth Vermont infantry, and was discharged from the service Sept. 30, 1864, at Brattleboro, Vt.

On Sept. 4, 1866, he was united in marriage to Miss Ella Flint in Granville, Vt., and immediately they went to Moline, where they resided for nearly five years, going from there to Orion, which was their home for 22 years. In 1893, they removed to Geneseo, which has since been their home.

Mr. Eaton was a member of Stewart lodge, No. 92, A. F. and A. M. He had been a member of the Masons since 1866, and of the G. A. R. since 1884, serving as commander of Edgar Trego post of Orion in 1886, and of E. J. Jenkins post of Geneseo in 1915. Besides the widow and a daughter, Mrs. William Lowes of Sedgwick, Colo., he is survived by a sister, Mrs. Mary Savage, of Dixon, Ill., and two brothers, F. W. Eaton of Rochester, Vt., and Dr. D. B. Eaton of Chicago.

Funeral was held this afternoon at 2:30 from the Congregational church, services being in charge of the G. A. R. post. Rev. W. W. Tuttle preached the sermon. Burial was in Oakwood cemetery.

China and Art shop, 1805 1/2 Second avenue.

An important meeting of the Southwest Improvement association will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at Kennedy's store, 1101 Twenty-first avenue. It is to be a "get together" session. A report will be read by the committee appointed to confer with the city commissioners relative to more street lights, extension of Third avenue line into territory, 15-minute car service on the Watch Tower line the year around, and the widening of Eleventh street.

MAY DIE AS RESULT OF SHOP ACCIDENT

Thomas O'Brien, aged 50 years, 4427 Sixteenth avenue, Rock Island, was perhaps fatally injured, muscles having been torn from his spine and bones in his right leg fractured when a 200 pound pinion wheel fell upon him last night while he was at work in the Williams White & Company foundry, Moline. He is in the Moline city hospital. He was at work at a machine known as a "bull-dozer." The shaft broke, releasing the pinion wheel. It fell upon him, bearing him to the floor. His clothes were torn from his body.
